

APA's Guidelines for Granting Permission to Republish DSM-5 Content in Korean Language.

Permission is granted under the following conditions:

- * Material must be reproduced without modification, with the exception of style and format changes.
- * Permission is nonexclusive and limited to this one time use
- * Use is limited to Korean language only for the uses(print, website, e-book, DVD, CD-Rom...)
- * Permission should be granted for use in one title or one product only. Publisher requesting permission should request permission for each title or product in which they would like to reproduce DSM-5 information.
- * Permission must be requested for additional uses (including subsequent editions, revisions and any other electronic use)
- * Uses not listed are not granted.
- * Permission fee must be paid before material is reproduced.
- * permission fee is paid (US$000.00)
- * The fee for permission to reproduce DSM-5 Diagnostic Criteria is $150 per item per use for print runs under 10,000 unites, and $250 for print runs over 10,000 units. DSM-5
- * If the publisher receives requests for use of DSM-5 content in Electronic Medical Health Records or other Software products, the APA can assist with pricing for licensing of the content in these types of products.

DSM-5 Pricing Guidelines: For Reproduction (DSM-5 한국어판 내용인용 사용료)
Item	DSM-5
Single Diagnostic Criteria, print run under 10,000 units	$150
Single Diagnostic Criteria, print run over 10,000 units	$250
Single Diagnostic Criteria, for use in instruments	$1,500
Classification	$2,000
Cover, print	$550
Cover or prop, TV	$550
Cover or prop, Movie	$550

- * In all instances, the source and copyright status of reprinted material must appear with the reproduced text.